Complete this form if access to the principal's personal accounts is required.

Access and authorise rights on all the principal's personal accounts will be the same as those on the primary and any additional company accounts linked. Access to all the principal's accounts can be restricted by the company administrator so that only designated users have access.

A principal is a director or partner of, or the sole trader operating, the primary company or an additional linked company.

By including their personal accounts for access through Business Banking Online, principals authorise BankSA to disclose information concerning their personal accounts to, and allow their personal accounts to be accessed and used by, the primary company, additional linked companies, company administrators and users. Principals also give indemnity in Clause 27 of the Business Banking Online Terms and Conditions.
