Appendix A – Proof of Identification

All BankSA margin lending applicants (including individuals, individual trustees, company directors/guarantors and authorised signatories), who are not existing BankSA or Westpac customers, must provide certified copies of identification documents in accordance with the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (AML/CTF Act 2006).

Note: It is an offence under the AML/CTF Act 2006 to knowingly provide false or misleading information or knowingly produce a false or misleading document.

This document details acceptable identification documentation for all persons/entities as mentioned above, who are a party to this BankSA Margin Loan Facility. Please consult the relevant sections that apply to you.

A. Proof of Identification and Certification of Identity Documents for Individuals

Refer to this section if you are:

- An individual/sole trader and/or joint individual borrower
- An authorised signatory
- An individual trustee for a trust borrower
- A company director.

If any of the above persons are noted on the BankSA Margin Loan Application, they must provide original certified copies of acceptable identification documentation by an approved certifier.

Your identification documents can be certified by either:

1. Your financial adviser – where they have introduced you to this BankSA Margin Loan Facility, have an Australian Financial Services Licence (AFSL) and 2 or more continuous years of service with one or more licensees. Your financial adviser must complete the appropriate FSC/FPA Identification Form and attach it to this BankSA Margin Lending Loan Application.
2. Any other eligible certifier as listed in the Certified Identification Form (CID) for Individuals which is attached (see Categories of acceptable certifiers). Your certifier must complete this form and attach it to this BankSA Margin Lending Loan Application together with the certified identification documents.

If you are unable to provide the required identity documents, contact our Account Management Team on 1300 305 172 for further options.

B. Proof of Identification and Certification of Identity Documents for Trusts

Refer to this section if the borrower is a trust. Where the trustee is an individual/s, please also refer to Section A above. Where the trustee is a corporate, the company directors must also refer to Section A above.

Trustee borrowers must provide an original certified copy of the dated and stamped (where applicable) trust deed.

Your copy of the trust deed can be certified by either:

- Your financial adviser – where they have introduced you to this BankSA Margin Loan Facility, have an AFSL and 2 or more continuous years of service with one or more licensees. Your financial adviser must complete the appropriate FSC/FPA Identification Form and attach it to this BankSA Margin Lending Loan Application together with the original certified identification documents.
- Any other eligible certifier as listed below:
 1. A person who is enrolled on the roll of the Supreme Court of a State or Territory, or the High Court of Australia, as a legal practitioner (however described)
 2. A judge of a court
 3. A magistrate

Appendix B – BankSA Privacy Statement and other reporting obligations

Personal information

We collect personal information from you to process your application, provide you with your product or service, and manage your product or service. We may also use your information to comply with legislative or regulatory requirements in any jurisdiction, prevent fraud, crime or other activity that may cause harm in relation to our products or services and help us run our business. We may also use your information to tell you about products or services we think may interest you.

If you do not provide all the information we request, we may need to reject your application or we may no longer be able to provide a product or service to you.

If you are a proposed guarantor, we collect your personal information in order to assess you as a guarantor, take a guarantee from you and administer that guarantee. If you do not provide all the information we request, we may be unable to accept you as a guarantor.

We may disclose your personal information to other members of the Westpac Group, anyone we engage to do something on our behalf, rewards program administrators and other organisations that assist us with our business.

We may disclose your personal information to an entity which is located outside Australia. Details of the countries where the overseas recipients are likely to be located are in our privacy policy.

As a provider of financial services, we have obligations to disclose some personal information to government agencies and regulators in Australia, and in some cases offshore. We are not able to ensure that foreign government agencies or regulators will comply with Australian privacy laws, although they may have their own privacy laws. By using our products or services, you consent to these disclosures.

We are required or authorised to collect personal information from you by certain laws. Details of these laws are in our privacy policy. Our privacy policy is available at banksa.com.au or by calling us on 13 13 76. It covers:

- how you can access the personal information we hold about you and ask for it to be corrected;
- how you may complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles or a registered privacy code and how we will deal with your complaint;
- how we collect, hold, use and disclose your personal information in more detail.

We will update our privacy policy from time to time.

Credit information

We may:

- obtain consumer credit information about you from a credit reporting body to enable us to assess your creditworthiness;
- obtain information about your commercial activities or commercial credit worthiness from a business which provides information about the commercial credit worthiness;
- exchange personal information and credit information about you with other credit providers to assess your application and creditworthiness and to notify them of any defaults by you;
- disclose credit information and other personal information about you to a guarantor or to a proposed guarantor (for the purpose of them considering whether to offer to act as guarantor);
- give or obtain a banker's opinion about you.

If you are a proposed guarantor, we may obtain credit reporting information about you from a credit reporting body for the purpose of assessing whether to accept you as a guarantor.

If you have made your application or have been introduced to us through a broker or other intermediary, we may exchange credit information and other personal information about you with them. We may also communicate with them directly in relation to your application instead of communicating with you.

The privacy page of our website banksa.com.au includes a "Statement of Notifiable Matters". These are matters you should be aware of in relation to the use and disclosure of your credit information. This statement includes:

- details of the credit reporting bodies to which we are likely to disclose your credit information, the types of credit information we may give them and how this information will be used;
- your rights over your credit information, including how you can access and correct your information and make complaints;
- your rights to direct a credit reporting body to limit the use of your information for direct marketing purposes and what protections are available if you believe you are a victim of fraud; and
- information about our Credit Reporting Policy.

You can call us on 13 13 76 for a hard copy of the Statement of Notifiable Matters.

Other acknowledgements and consents

- We may confirm the details of the information provided in your application;
- Where you have provided information about another individual, you must make them aware of that fact and the contents of the Privacy Statement.

We and members of the Westpac Group will use or disclose your personal information to contact you or send you information about other products and services offered by the Westpac Group or its preferred suppliers. Please call us on 13 13 76, if you do not wish to receive marketing communications from us.

We are required to identify tax residents of a country(ies) other than Australia in order to meet account information reporting requirements under local and international laws.

If at any time after entering into this agreement, information in our possession suggests that you, the entity and/or any individual who holds ownership and/or control in the entity of 25% or more (Controlling Person/Beneficial Owner) may be a tax resident of a country(ies) other than Australia, you may be contacted to provide further information on your foreign tax status and/or the foreign tax status of the entity and/or Controlling Person/Beneficial Owner. Failure to respond may lead to certain reporting requirements applying to the account.

By completing this application you certify that if at any time there is a change to the foreign tax status details for you, the entity and/or any Controlling Persons/Beneficial Owner, you will inform the bank. You also certify that if at any time there is a change of a Controlling Persons/Beneficial Owner/s in your entity, you will inform the bank.

A Controlling Person/Beneficial Owner refers to the individual(s) that directly or indirectly owns a legal interest in the entity of 25% or more and/or exercises actual effective control over the entity, whether from an economic or other perspective such as through voting rights. In addition, in the case of a trust, a Controlling Person/Beneficial Owner includes the settlor(s), trustee(s), appointer(s), protector(s), beneficiary(ies) or classes of beneficiaries and in the case of an entity other than a trust, the term includes persons in equivalent or similar positions.

By completing this application, you also certify that the settlor(s) and/or named beneficiary(ies) (applicable to Standard Trusts only) are not foreign tax residents. If the settlor(s) and/or named beneficiary(ies) are a foreign tax resident, you must telephone 1300 725 863 at the time of completing this application. When you contact us, you will be asked to provide additional information for the settlor(s) and/or named beneficiary(ies).

Definitions
